Every June we host an annual Filmmakers Retreat, designed to provide a small cohort of stressed out, overworked, and underpaid filmmakers with a weekend respite of camaraderie, support, and collaboration. This retreat has become a coveted haven for filmmakers to receive much needed rest and inspiration while building a deeper community with other women filmmakers.

JUNE - Sponsorships available

Experience the joy of film with friends and fellow cinephiles, as we present the best in independent movies, often first run and always the quality you have come to expect from Rocky Mountain Women's Film. Join us each month in our "pop-up" theater at the Ivywild School.

MARCH-AUGUST - Sponsorships available starting at $1,000

Monthly programming includes Film Club, Filmmaker Live! events, and Film in the Community.

Film Club:

Each month we present a film from the Madelyn Osur Film Library on the screen at Rocky Mountain Women's Film office inside the Lincoln School. These screenings are free and open to the public.

Filmmaker LIVE!:

The highlight at each Festival is often the direct interaction with filmmakers. As an extension of this connection, we host special screenings throughout the year that will include a Q&A with the filmmaker, LIVE!.

Film in the Community:

In partnership with community organizations, RMWF provides free screenings of films to expose diverse and new audiences to entertaining and thought-provoking documentary film.

Sponsorships available $500-$2500

FEATURING SUMMER OF SOUL

Cinema in the Park is a free community event taking place the evening of August 13 on the lawn below the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center. Guests are invited to gather before sunset to enjoy live music and picnic (bring your own or purchase from attending food trucks) before settling in for an outdoor film screening, featuring this year's Academy Award winning documentary SUMMER OF SOUL.

In his acclaimed debut as a filmmaker, Ahmir "Questlove" Thompson presents a powerful and transporting documentary—part music film, part historical record created around an epic event that celebrated Black history, culture and fashion. Over the course of six weeks in the summer of 1969, just one hundred miles south of Woodstock, The Harlem

Cultural Festival was filmed in Mount Morris Park. The footage was largely forgotten—until now. SUMMER OF SOUL shines a light on the importance of history to our spiritual well-being and stands as a testament to the healing power of music during times of unrest, both past and present.

RKY WOMEN'S MTN FILM FESTIVAL

About the Festival

The Rocky Mountain Women's Film Festival (RMWFF), well-known and respected worldwide, is the longest running women's film festival in the Western Hemisphere. A diverse mix of documentary features, shorts and narratives, makes the Festival one of Colorado Springs' cultural treasures. Women filmmakers from around the world attend the three-day festival in November, engage with attendees during after-film Q&As, and participate in daily filmmakers' forums.

“RMWFF offers unique opportunities for the community to gather and dialogue on diverse, inspiring and challenging topics. And as fellow “City-Builders,” they continue to do great work in and for our community. Please join us in supporting RMWFF!”

WHY SUPPORT?

Simply put, the Rocky Mountain Women's Film Festival brings the best in documentary film, both by and/or about women, to Colorado Springs. Your support allows us to present diverse and intellectually challenging films to create ongoing conversation in our community about the world and the important stories of those often unheard or unseen.

RMWFF audiences love our sponsors! Your support keeps ticket prices low and lets us invite more filmmakers to attend the Festival each year. Sponsor support also underwrites the Festival in the Community, which offers free screenings just prior to the Festival and the Youth Outreach Program, with screenings and filmmaker discussions for at-risk youth. Your sponsorship ensures that the Rocky Mountain Women's Film Festival and its programs continue for decades to come, ensuring these experiences for future generations.
