

ROCKY MOUNTAIN WOMEN'S FILM

Building Community Around Film

CELEBRATING 35 YEARS

OUR MISSION

Rocky Mountain Women's Film builds community around film by elevating the stories of women and others who are often unheard or unseen.

An evening program and our annual fundraiser, Shorts Night presents a lineup of some of the most decorated short films of the year including winners from Sundance, Berlin, Cannes, and, of course, the Academy Awards. Come and enjoy complimentary movie treats and popcorn while watching the best of the best in short films, including animation, narrative, and documentaries.

APRIL - Sponsorships available $1000-$7500

Break out your lawn chair and bring a friend for an outdoor screening. If you have been fans of Rocky Mountain Women's Film you may recognize this event – it's our reimagined Wheel to Reel minus the wheel. Presented at Monument Valley Park in a large field, enjoy food trucks, live music, and a film under the stars.

AUGUST - Sponsorships available $1500-$5000

Every June we host an annual Filmmakers Retreat, designed to provide a small cohort of stressed out, overworked, and underpaid filmmakers with a weekend respite of camaraderie, support, and collaboration. This retreat has become a coveted haven for filmmakers to receive much needed rest and inspiration while building a deeper community with other women filmmakers.

JUNE/JULY - Sponsorships available

RMWF is proud to host our own summer Drive-In Cinema, offering both classics from past festivals, as well as new releases. The summer season runs July through October with films screening in the parking lot behind the former Gazette Building, just east of downtown.

JUNE thru OCT - Sponsorships available $2500-$7500

Monthly programming includes Film Club, Filmmaker Live! events, and Film in the Community.

Film Club:
Each month we present a film from the Madelyn Osur Film Library on the screen at Rocky Mountain Women's Film office inside the Lincoln School. These screenings are free and open to the public.

Filmmaker LIVE!:
The highlight at each Festival is often the direct interaction with filmmakers. As an extension of this connection, we've added special screenings throughout the year that will include a Q&A with the filmmaker, LIVE!.

Film in the Community:
In partnership with community organizations, RMWF provides free screenings of films to expose diverse and new audiences to entertaining and thought-provoking documentary film.

Sponsorships available $500-$2500

RKY WOMEN'S MTN FILM FESTIVAL

About the Festival

The Rocky Mountain Women's Film Festival (RMWFF), well-known and respected worldwide, is the longest running women's film festival in the Western Hemisphere. A diverse mix of documentary features, shorts and narratives, makes the Festival one of Colorado Springs' cultural treasures. Women filmmakers from around the world attend the three-day festival in November, engage with attendees during after-film Q&As, and participate in daily filmmakers' forums.

“RMWFF offers unique opportunities for the community to gather and dialogue on diverse, inspiring and challenging topics. And as fellow “City-Builders,” they continue to do great work in and for our community. Please join us in supporting RMWFF!”
— Chris and Sharon Jenkins, Norwood Development Group

WHY SUPPORT?

Simply put, the Rocky Mountain Women's Film Festival brings the best in documentary film, both by and/or about women, to Colorado Springs. Your support allows us to present diverse and intellectually challenging films to create ongoing conversation in our community about the world and the important stories of those often unheard or unseen.

RMWFF audiences love our sponsors! Your support keeps ticket prices low and lets us invite more filmmakers to attend the Festival each year. Sponsor support also underwrites the Festival in the Community, which offers free screenings just prior to the Festival and the Youth Outreach Program, with screenings and filmmaker discussions for at-risk youth. Your sponsorship ensures that the Rocky Mountain Women's Film Festival and its programs continue for decades to come, ensuring these experiences for future generations.
